
THE 1959 Sylvan

So Dear To Our Hearts

Are The Scenes...

THIS IS OUR SCHOOL

In 1917, the Woodland School and Olney School of George were consolidated to form Woodland-Olney High School. A three-story building, with auditorium on the third floor was constructed to house the new school. In the '20' the auditorium was condemned as unsafe. The gymnasium was then used as assembly hall.

In 1933-35, the present building was completed along with a dormitory to house teachers and boarding students. In the '30' many students from out of the community came to school at Woodland.

In 1956, a modern building was added to the school plant to accommodate Home Economics, Agriculture, and a cafeteria.

FOREWORD

The Senior Class has collected in THE SYLVAN of 1959 a pictured record of events of a year that will always be "So Dear to Our Hearts." This undertaking was made possible by a host of friends whom we thank. We hope that this annual will recall good memories for all the subscribers.

Day By Day, We

The anticipation of the coming day is vividly expressed in the faces of these young students.

The rush is on - - to the lunchroom, that is. This is a pleasure all high school students have experienced.

The Seniors are ready, willing, and prepared to carry their full load of responsibility throughout the day and year.

Children always have a way of tying in education with the most blissful fun.

DEDICATION

With the deepest gratitude and appreciation for their integrity, their unswerving faith, love, and devotion throughout the years, we, the Seniors of 1959, dedicate the 1959 edition of THE SYLVAN to our Parents.

"THE SOUTHERN PLANTATION"

The Juniors of 1958 entertained the Seniors and many other guests beside a river on a southern plantation-in the gymnasium.

This banquet was of such color and beauty that it was complimented by all who attended. Original decorations designed by the Juniors themselves were viewed as part of the school Art Exhibit. It won three art prizes.
